MISCELLANEOUS.—(REPRESENTATIVE ASSEMBLY.)

(Nos. 51 to 57)

SUBJECT No. 51.

Nomination of a Member to the Representative Assembly from the Rajput caste of the Military Department.

Mr. Ananta Padmanabha Tivari, Hiriyur Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—The Rajput caste of the Military Department is not at present represented in the Representative Assembly. It is prayed that a member from the Rajput caste may be nominated to the Assembly.

SUBJCET No. 52.

Permission to the Representatives of the Mysore University to bring representations on all subjects.

Mr. S. R. Balakrishna Rao, Mysore University.

Summary of Representation.—Government may be pleased to admit all subjects of representation without restricting the subjects to University matter only, inasmuch as Representative Members have got a right to represent all matters of public interest for the reason that every member becomes a Member of the Assembly by election and empowered to deal with all subjects.

SUBJECT No. 53.

Distribution of the agenda of R. A. Meetings and budget copies in sufficient time.

Messrs. (a) H. Manjaiya, Channarayapatna Taluk; and (b) H. Krishna Sastry, Krishnarajpete Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—(a) It is prayed that the agenda of the R. A. Meetings and budget copies may be distributed to members in sufficient time so as to enable them to study the subjects and to discuss them at the Assembly as the majority of the members are agriculturists and cannot comprehend subjects then and there.

(b) The statistics relating to the State Budget may be compiled in some methodical and systematic manner and copies supplied to members at least a month before the Assembly meeting.

SUBJECT No. 54.

Consultation of the Representative Assembly before State Loans are floated.

Messrs. T. Venkataswamaiya, Mysore District Board; Dhoraswamy Iyengar, Chamrajnagar Taluk; and Thimmaiya Gowda, Krishnarajpete Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—The opinion of the Representative Assembly may be taken before floating State Loans.
